THE BAREFOOT BOY.

BY JNO. G. WHITTIER.

Blessings on thee, little man,
Barefoot boy, with cheek of tan!
With thy upturned pantaloons,
And thy merry whistled tunes—
With thy red lips, redder still
Kissed by strawberries on the hill—
With the sunshine on thy face,
Through thy torn brim's jauntly grace;
From my heart I give thee joy,
I was once a barefoot boy.

Oh! for boyhood's painless play,
Sleep that wakes in laughing day,
Health that mocks the doctor's rules,
Knowledge never learned at schools
Of the wild bee's morning chase,
Of the wild flower's time and place,
Flight of fowls and habitude
Of the tenants of the wood,
How the tortoise bears his shell,
How the woodchuck digs his cell,
And the ground mole sinks his well,
How the robin feeds her young,
How the oriole's nest is hung;
Where the whitest lilies blow,
Where the freshest berries grow,
Where the ground-nut trails its vine,
Where the wood-grape clusters shine;
Of the black wasp's cunning way,
Mason of his walls of clay,
And the architectural plans
Of gray-hornet artizans!
For oschewing books and tasks,
Nature answers all he asks;
Hand in hand with her he walks,
Face to face with her he talks,
Part and parcel of her joy—
Blessings on thee, barefoot boy!

Cheerily, then, my little man,
Live and laugh as boyhood can,
Though the flinty slopes be hard,
Stubble-spread the new-mown sward,
Every morn shall lead thee through
Fresh baptism of the dew;
Every evening from thy feet
Shall the cool wind kiss the heat;
And too soon those feet shall hide
In the prison cells of pride,
Lose the freedom of the sod,
Like a colt for work be shod,
Made to tread the mills of toil,
Up and down in ceaseless moil—
Happy if thy track be found
Never on forbidden ground—
Happy if they sink not in
Quick and treacherous sands of sin.
Ah! that thee knew thy joy,
Ere it passes, barefoot boy!

The True Man.

I shall in this communication, in my feeble efforts, try to delineate the character of the true man of honor and integrity. It is a plain one, and easily understood. The man of integrity is one who makes it his constant rule to follow the road of duty, according as the word of God and the voice of his conscience point out to him. He is not guided merely by affections, but by a fixed principle of mind, which determines him to esteem nothing but what is honorable and right, and to abhor that which is base, unmanly, unprincipled, and immoral, or unworthy in moral conduct. We find him the same at all times.—The same trusty friend, the affectionate relation, the conscientious man of business, and the pious worshipper. He assumes no borrowed appearance, nor seeks a mask to cover himself—for his acts are no studied part; but is indeed what he appears to be—full of truth, candor, and humanity. In all his pursuits he knows no path but the fair and direct one, and would much rather fail of success than attain it by reproachful means. He never shows us a smiling countenance while he meditates evil against us in his heart, nor praises us among our friends and then join in traducing us among our enemies. Nor do we ever find one part of his character at variance with an other. In his manners he is simple and unaffected; in all his proceedings open and consistent. J. B. S.

Aughwick Creek, Sept. 20, 1865.

HOW MUCH IS HE WORTH?—Of all current questions this is the one most frequently asked. It is, in fact, the great question of the day. Nobody to speak of inquiries, "Is he honest?"—"Is he patriotic?" Every body puts the query, "What is he worth?" Money is not merely the commercial standard of value, but too often the criterion of social position, and the touchstone of character.

☞ In 1864 there were 104 public libraries in the United States, with 10,000 volumes in each. They contained in the aggregate 2,403,477. It is estimated that there are upward of 12,000,000 volumes in the whole of the public libraries in the United States.

What Pennsylvania Did in the War.

When the war of the rebellion was precipitated, the then authorities at Washington calculated that sixty thousand men and three months would be sufficient force and time to crush the plot of treason. It is not necessary now to refer to the fact that this calculation of a force necessary to arrest rebellion, was wofully wrong, and that instead of requiring three months, four years, four terrible, weary, bloody and self sacrificing years were consumed in the struggle to restore the Union to peace. But it is a curious fact that one of the States of the Union has furnished almost five times as many men to aid in crushing rebellion, as was at first demanded of all the States, to accomplish that result.

On inquiry in the office of the Adjutant General, A. L. Russell, for information relative to the full number of men furnished by the State of Pennsylvania, as recruits for the armies of the republic, we were placed in possession of the following letter:

WAR DEPARTMENT,
PRO. MAR. GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, D. C., Sept. 2, 1865.

His Excellency, A. G. Curtin, Governor of Pennsylvania:

SIR:—I have the honor to inform you that the number of men furnished by the State of Pennsylvania from April 17, 1861, to April 20, 1865, is three hundred and sixty one thousand nine hundred and thirty nine (361,939) without reference to periods of service, which varied from three months to three years.

Please acknowledge receipt.

I have the honor to be, sir,
Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES B. FRY,
Provost Marshal General.

The number of men credited to Pennsylvania, in the foregoing official account, tallies so closely with the records in the State Adjutant General's office that we are willing to accept it as correct. But there are other official records besides those kept at Washington of men furnished by Pennsylvania to aid in crushing the rebellion, which greatly swell the aggregate force we sent into the field. These records show, that for State defence and in response to the demands of sudden emergencies, Pennsylvania put into the field at various times, a force of between 86 and 90,000 men. On several occasions we had a cordon of bayonets stretched along the entire southern border of the State. Then again, the number of men who were induced to leave the State for enlistment in other States, was very large. The border counties of New York along the entire border line, were paying heavy bounties before the counties in this State along the same line, offered pecuniary inducements for enlistments. The same inducements were offered to citizens of Pennsylvania by other border States. An entire regiment was raised in the western counties of Pennsylvania for West Virginia. In New Jersey, for a time, enlistments were largely discouraged by the copperhead leaders, so that loyal men in many of the districts in that State, anxious to fill up their quotas, were compelled to find substitutes through the influence of heavy bounties offered to the people of Pennsylvania. Nor was it only the States immediately on our border that thus filled their quotas from among our citizens. States on the Pacific coast did the same; in proof of which we need only refer to the fact that a full regiment was recruited in the city of Philadelphia, for the State of California, a regiment afterwards commanded by one of the California United States Senators. Carefully estimating the men thus raised and enlisted in various localities, we put down the aggregate number of troops thus furnished by Pennsylvania at 25,000. Indeed so great was this drain on our military resources that the Legislature passed a law sternly forbidding the enlistment of men within the borders of the State for service in the organizations of other States, and districts emphatically declared that the families of those thus leaving the Commonwealth, should not receive the benefits of the relief offered to the families of soldiers in Pennsylvania organizations. Nor must we forget the large number of colored troops that were enlisted in Pennsylvania for other States. At least 2500 colored troops went into service in other States, who were taken out of Pennsylvania. Taking these figures as fair estimates we have the following

Recapitulation of Troops Furnished by the State of Pennsylvania, to Aid in Restoring the National Authority in the Revolted States:

Number of men regularly furnished and accounted for by U. S. Provost Marshal,	361,939
Number of men in the aggregate called at various times to meet emergencies growing out of the attempted invasion of the North by the rebel army of N. Virginia,	90,000
Number of men who left Pennsylvania to enlist in other States,	25,000
Number of colored men who left Pennsylvania to enlist in the organizations of other States, on account of there being no opportunity for colored troops to enlist in this State,	2,500
Aggregate number of troops furnished by the State of Pennsylvania to sustain the National authority,	479,459

It will thus be seen that Pennsylvania furnished within a fraction of half a million of men to fill up the armies of the United States and sustain the National authority in the struggle to maintain Constitutional law. Nor must it be forgotten, in this connection, that while fighting men of the Commonwealth were thus engaged in doing battle on the side of law and order, and hundreds of thousands were rallying to the National cause, the State authorities were reducing hundreds of thousands of dollars of the State debt. What other State in the Union is able to exhibit a like record? It is not for us to boast of these achievements in war and peace. We do not desire to comment on such results, because in the hour of the State's glory, we are contented with the calm satisfaction created by the contemplation of these figures; but surely there is something due to the wisdom, the fortitude, the financial ability and the patriotic devotion of those who administered the affairs of the State of Pennsylvania while our fellow-citizens were thus exhibiting their ability in war and their exhaustless resources in finance.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

FAITH.—A few evenings ago, my little daughter who had been spending the afternoon at a neighbor's, started with me through the darkness for home. It was the first time that she had ever been out doors in the night, and everything seemed new and strange. "Papa, I see lots of stars up in heaven," said she. "Why, papa, see how many houses have got lights in the windows." As soon as her curiosity abated somewhat, she began to be troubled about the way home. "I can't see our house, papa. I don't know the way; where are we going?" she said anxiously. I replied, "I can see the road, and if you keep hold of my hand I will take care of you." Then she said, as if chiding and comforting herself, "Yes; you do know the way, don't you, papa? You will take care of your little girl, cause you love her; don't you, papa?" After this she only grasped my hand a little tighter, and trudged cheerfully onward, wherever I led the way.

Ah! said I to myself, little one, thou hast rebuked and comforted me. How often have I, notwithstanding the care of my heavenly Father, been troubled because I could not see my way clear to the eternal mansions. As if it were not enough to know that God loves me, to infer surely that He will guide me safely to heaven. Let me but grasp the Saviour more firmly and feel His presence in the darkness of trial and sorrow, and then shall I walk on sweetly, assuring my soul by repeating His own words of supplication: "Father, I will that they also whom thou hast given me be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory which thou hast given me."

A CHAIR FOR PRESIDENT JOHNSON.—Our readers will remember that Seth Kinman, the California hunter, presented an elk horn chair, of curious construction, to Abraham Lincoln. Mr. Kinman has now constructed a chair, to be presented to President Johnson—a chair that surpasses all his previous efforts. It is made of two grizzly bears, captured by himself. But we almost despair of giving anything like an intelligent description of the article. Suffice it to say that the four legs, with the feet and claws in perfection, are those of a huge grizzly bear, while the arms are the arms and paws of another grizzly; the back and sides are also ornamented with immense claws. The seat is soft and exceedingly comfortable, but the great "feature" of the "institution" is, that by touching a cord, the head of a monstrous grizzly bear, with extended jaws, will dart in front from under the seat, snapping and gnashing its teeth as natural as life. It is wonderful in design, wonderful in execution, and a worthy souvenir from the hunter of the Rocky Mountains to the Chief Magistrate of the nation.—Montour American.

The Baffled Lawyer.

At a late sitting of the Court Assizes a case was brought before the court in which the principal witness for the defence was a tanner, well known in the surrounding country by the sobriquet of "Crazy Pat."

Upon Crazy Pat being called for his evidence, the attorney for the prosecution exerted to the utmost extent his knowledge of legal chicanery in the endeavor to force it into some inconsistency, upon which he might build a point; but he was excessively annoyed to find that Crazy Pat's evidence was consistent throughout.

Perceiving that acute questioning failed to answer his purpose, the disciple of Coke and Blackstone betook himself to the often-times successful resource of lawyer—ridicule.

"What did you say your name was?" he inquired flipantly.

"Folks call me Crazy Pat, but—"

Crazy Pat, eh? A very euphonious title; quite romantic, eh"?

"Romantic or not, sur it wudn't be a bad idea if the Parliment wud give it to yourself an' chose leave me have another."

This caused a slight laugh in the court-room, and the presiding judge peeped over his spectacles at the attorney, as much to say, You have your match now."

"And what did you say your trade was?" continued the disconcerted barrister, with an angry look at the witness.

"I'm a tanner, sur."

"A tanner, eh? And how long do you think it would take to tan an ox?"

"Well, sur, that's intirely owin' to circumstances."

"Did you ever tan the hide of an ass?"

"An ass? No, sur; but if you'll just step down the lane, after court, I'll show ye I can tan the hide of an ass in the short end of three minutes."

WOULDN'T MARRY A MECHANIC.—A young man commenced visiting a young woman, and appeared to be well pleased. One evening he called when it was quite late, which led the girl to enquire where he had been.

"I had to work to-night," replied the young man.

"Do you work for a living?" enquired the astonished girl.

"My brother doesn't work hard, and I dislike a mechanic," and she turned up her pretty nose.

This is the last time the mechanic visited the young lady. Now he is a wealthy man, and has one of the best of women for a wife. The young lady who disliked the name of mechanic is now the wife of a miserable fool—a regular vagrant about grogshops—and she, poor miserable girl, is obliged to support herself and her children.

Ye who dislike the name of mechanic, whose brothers do nothing but [illegible] and dress, beware how you mistrust men who work for a living. Far better discard the well fed pauper, with all his rings and brazen-facedness and pomposity, and take to your affections the callous-handed, industrious, intelligent mechanic. Thousands have bitterly repented the folly, who have turned their backs to honest industry. A few years of bitter experience taught them a serious lesson. In this country no man or woman should be respected, in our way of thinking, who would not work mentally or physically, and who curl their lips with scorn when introduced to hard-working men.

IT IS NOT TRUE, as alleged, that Col. Campbell resigned his commission in the army. He was mustered out under a general order from the War Department, his term of service having expired, precisely as hundreds of other good officers have been honorably discharged from the service. He could not have longer continued in service as a Colonel had he so elected, the regimental organization being broken.

IT IS NOT TRUE, as alleged, that Lieut.-Col. Linton led the Fifty-fourth in the battles of New-market and Piedmont.—He was not even in the battle of Piedmont. Col Campbell himself gallantry and well led his own regiment in both the battles named, and in every other engagement—with the single exception of the affair at Snicker's Gap—in which that regiment participated during the whole period of his three years' service. After the battle of Newmarket, General Sigel personally complimented Colonel Campbell and in sight of the whole regiment.

IT IS NOT TRUE, as alleged, that Lieut.-Col. Linton was ever one day in command of the Fifty-fourth before Petersburg, or anywhere in that neighborhood. He was not in one of the many brilliant engagements which followed the inauguration of Grant's splendid campaign against Richmond.—Johnstown Tribune.

Some Arts of Beauty.

"Beauty is ever that divine thing the ancients painted it; and though it may sometimes prove a fatal legacy to an ill-trained, weak-minded girl, yet it is oftener a blessing than otherwise, and mothers ought to strive by all proper means to make their daughters beautiful and engaging as well as virtuous and truthful—and beauty can be so greatly promoted, nay, it may be almost created, by watchful care and knowledge.

Any child that has tolerable features may be made pretty, if not beautiful, by proper food, fresh air, good temper and education.

Beauty of expression is the most enduring and highest kind of beauty, and the expression of the countenance is undoubtedly more to be controlled and improved by culture than in fairness of complexion. Every day we see faces ugly and distorted by crossness, anger, revenge and sensuality, which were once bright and lovely with the innocence and smiles of childhood. What has changed them so greatly, if not coarse food and bad passions?

Every cross, jealous, proud, scornful feeling, like every blow of the chisel upon marble, serves to carve a line upon the features, and each time such feelings are indulged, the work of the invisible carver is deepened, until the face is made ugly by unkind and unholy thoughts and passions.

In the same way kind, pure thoughts, gentleness of word and deed, leave their impress, making bad complexions and common features almost radiant with the beauty of goodness.

Education, both intellectual and moral, increase beauty; a countenance beaming with intelligence, united to a gentle winning manner, will always be thought lovely by sensible people, if it has no other charms, and this beauty will endure through life.

Any one may prove the power of education upon the features by noticing the ignorant, vicious children who are sent to a school of reform, where they are properly fed and instructed. Day by day, as they receive new ideas of right and wrong and think new thoughts, their eyes brighten, their cheeks assume a deeper color, and the whole expression of the face changes.

How noble are the faces of most men known for their culture and genius! so noble, that in any crowd they would be noticed and remarked upon, though unknown. It is not that they are, in the common acceptation of the term, handsome men, but because education and intelligence has wrought upon their features till they are grand as the sculptured faces of heroes and demigods. If every mother and teacher would but take the requisite care in the physical and moral culture of the young, in two generations the appearance of the race might be vastly improved.

Let every guardian of youth then, impress upon the young how they disfigure their faces by ill temper, idleness and deceit, and beautify them by kindness, truth and diligence in cultivation of their minds.

THE IMPORTANCE OF SLEEP.—There is no fact more clearly established in the physiology of man than this, that the brain expands its energies and itself during hours of wakefulness, and that these are recuperated during sleep; if the recuperation does not equal the expenditure, the brain withers; this leads to insanity.

Thus it is that in early history persons who were condemned to death by being prevented from sleeping, always died raving maniacs; thus it is that those who starved to death, first become insane; the brain is not nourished, and they cannot sleep. Crazy persons are poor sleepers, good sleepers seldom become crazy.

The practical inferences are these:

1. Those who think most, who do most brain work, require most sleep.

2. That time saved from necessary sleep is infallibly destructive to mind, body, and estate.

3. Give yourself, your children, your servants—give all that are under you—the fullest amount of sleep they will take, by compelling them to go to bed at some regular hour, and to rise at a stated hour, and within a fortnight nature with almost [illegible] the rising sun, will unloose the bonds of sleep the moment enough repose has been secured for the want of the system.

This is the only safe and sufficient rule; and as to the question how much sleep any one requires, each must be a rule for himself; great nature will never fail to write it out to the observer under the regulations just given.

☞ Be temperate in all things.

Unprofitable Farming.

1. Purchasing poor land at a low price, instead of the best at a high one.

2. Want of underdraining in all places where work is retarded, growth lessened, and manure lost, by a surplus of water.

3. Inefficient fences, admitting depredators to destroy crops, and deranging farm order generally.

4. Building poor barns and stables, and allowing them to become dilapidated.

5. Wintering cattle, sheep and colts, at stacks in open fields.

6. Plowing badly, on the shallow, cut-and-cover system, instead of throwing up the soil into a fine, deep, even, mellow bed of earth.

7. Covering seed imperfectly, in consequence of such bad plowing, and thus allowing weeds and grass a joint occupancy of the land.

8. Planting and sowing too late, thus diminishing the crop to an am'nt equal to what would be the whole net profit; that is, throwing away the entire avails.

9. Allowing corn fields to be filled with a dense undergrowth of weeds, and potatoes and turnips with a dense overgrowth of the same.

10. Procuring cheap implements, and losing many times the cost of good ones by the slow and imperfect work they perform.

11. Leaving implements exposed to weather, to crack, warp and decay, scattering them in fields, about the barn yard, or along the side of the public highway.

12. Throwing brush, rubbish, &c., along fences and highways, thus promoting the growth of mullins, thistles, burdocks and nettles; instead of destroying such brush by fire, and leaving neat and clean borders to the fields.

13. Planting the same crop year after year in the same field, thus diminishing the product and filling the land with weeds.

14. Omitting to spread manure at the right time and then selling or giving it away to get rid of it.

15. Raising hump back cattle and lankpike hogs, that will consume monthly their entire value in feed, instead of the best animals, which fatten easily on little, and sell quickly for cash at high prices.

16. Feeding animals irregularly, causing them to fret for their food an hour one day, and to receive it before they are ready for it the next.

17. Failure to sow plenty of clover seed, and to plow under annually at least one field as a green crop, for manure, and thus in conjunction with animal dung, to maintain or increase the fertility and value of the farm.

18. An entire omission to keep accounts of the costs and profits of each [illegible]

Milking Cows.

All farmers know there is considerable difference in cows with respect to the ease and celerity with which they can be milked. From some the milk is extracted easily, while from others it is obtained, as it were, grudgingly and with much labor. The first requisite in the operation of milking, is to place yourself on a friendly footing with the animal from which lacteal current is to be obtained. A hasty, passionate, or gross person will always make a poor milker. It requires patience and kindness to break a cow in, and good usage thereafter to make her render her milk freely. If the animal is wild or skittish, the common practice is to administer a heavy dose of milking stool, while performing several circuits around the milking yard. This treatment may, after a while bring the cow to a stand still, but it will be one of fear and trembling—the worst possible condition for a ready rendering of the fluid sought.

The opposite of this course is the true one. Approach the animal kindly, and with soothing words allay her fears. Place your hand upon her lightly, moving it up and down upon her neck and shoulders. Rub your hand lightly about the ears and neck. She will perhaps shiver a little at first, eye you suspiciously for a time, and then taking a long breath, yield herself to your management without further apprehension of evil. An animal in an excited state of fear and bodily agitation cannot render her store of milk readily, hence the connection between the milker and the milked.

OXEN.—In a good working ox we want to see the following qualities:—Let him have large nostrils, long face, a bright hazel eye; which will indicate docility and intelligence; a hoof rather long and not turned outward very much, a straight back, a broad breast, wide gambrel, small tail, and horns of medium size. When you find such an ox as that, he will be a good worker.—Exchange.

Union County Committee.

SEPTEMBER 25, 1865.

The Committee met in the Court House, A. H. Bauman, Chairman, called the Committee to order. S. T. Brown, D. S. Baker, and John F. Ramey were appointed Secretaries. A communication prepared by the Chairman was then read by Mr. Brown, stating the object of the meeting and reviewing the proceedings of the Committee since the meeting of the County Convention.

Joseph Johnston, Esq., moved that the Committee proceed to nominate candidates for Associate Judge and Auditor.

Considerable discussion followed, when an amendment was offered by J. W. Mattern that the Committee endorse the action of the Committee meeting held on the 8th, nominating Anthony J. Beaver as candidate for Associate Judge. The vote stood, for the amendment 23, against it 34, so the amendment was lost and the original motion was adopted.

After some further discussion, the Convention proceeded to nominate candidates. The following gentlemen were put in nomination:—Anthony J. Beaver, Samuel McVitty, Maj. Wm. Cooper and David Clarkson.

On motion Milton H. Sangree was nominated by acclamation for County Auditor.

The Committee balloted for Associate Judge with the following result:

A. J. Beaver,	35	Maj. W. Cooper,	4
Sam'l McVitty,	8	D. Clarkson.	11

Mr. Beaver having received a majority of all the votes was declared duly nominated.

On motion the nomination was made unanimous.

The Committee then adjourned.

Union Men, Stand by Your Flag.

Two weeks from to-day the voters will go to the polls to deposite their votes for or against the party that during the past four years stood bravely up for the country against the rebels and the robellion. Every intelligent voter knows that if the so-called Democratic organization could have controlled the war power of our Government, the rebels to-day, instead of seeking for pardon at the feet of Andrew Johnson, would be rejoicing over the defeat of our arms and the success of the Southern Confederacy. The leaders of the organization who during the war had no other words than words of abuse for the good men at the head of our Government, are still the leaders of that party, and now that the war is over they expect to get into power by professing to be the friends of the soldier. We are not willing to trust such men in any public position; neither are we willing to give them strength by supporting any man for office who is under their influence.—The so called Democratic organization is controlled by the vilest traitors in the land, and we call upon every truly honest Union man to walk bravely up to the polls on next Tuesday a week and deposite his vote against that organization. The masses of the so called Democratic party are honest men, and they can only have put into practice what they profess by voting for honest Union candidates.

☞ Union Tickets for the election will be printed at this office this week. They should be distributed over the county as early as possible.

UNION VOTERS, perhaps you have heard of charges against our candidates for County Commissioner and Director of the Poor. We know them to be false.

TWO WEEKS AGO we promised to take no further notice of the malicious conduct of the Journal & American until after the election. So far as anything the editors of that sheet may say of us, we shall treat with silent contempt; but we would not be worthy the confidence of the Union party if we should permit them week after week, without exposure, to deceive the Union voters by falsehood and by making use of the names of honorable gentlemen without their permission, for the purpose of disorganizing the party and defeating its ticket. We will expose them, and not only them, but every man claiming to belong to the Union party, who attempts to disorganize the party for the purpose of giving success to the Opposition.

The Journal & American claims to be the organ of the Union party of the county. We will see how the editors of that paper have been acting this fall—and whether they have not refused to act with the organization:—On Tuesday morning the 5th inst., at 6 o'clock, A. H. Bauman, Chairman, furnished them with a call for a meeting of the County Committee for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Associate Judge to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Fisher. They received the call the same time it was handed to us, but they did not publish it. They were furnished with a copy of the proceedings of the Committee meeting held on the 8th, nominating Mr. Beaver, but they have not published them. On Monday, the 18th, at 3 o'clock, P. M., they were furnished with a call for the Committee meeting on Monday the 25th,—they did not publish the call. Thus showing a determination from the commencement of this fall campaign, to treat with contempt the Union County Committee and its chairman. Not satisfied that they had gone far enough with their disorganizing conduct, in refusing to publish calls issued by the Chairman of the Committee, they have issued calls for meetings of the County Committee without any authority whatever from the Chairman or members of the Committee, thus deceiving and putting to considerable expense several gentlemen who came to town on Wednesday of last week in answer to the bogus call in the Journal & American. Those who came to town to attend the bogus meeting, after learning how shamefully they had been deceived by the editors of the Journal & American refused to hold a committee meeting, and returned home determined not to be humbugged by them again.

—Since writing the above we have had placed in our hands a circular dated Sept. 15, and issued from the Jour. & American office to the members of the County Committee, denouncing as bogus the call issued by the Chairman on the 14th for the meeting of the Co. Committee which took place here on Monday. Had the members of the County Committee believed the false hoods contained in the circular there would not have been a committee meeting here on Monday, but the committee men could not be deceived by the forgery issued by the editors of the Jour. & Am., and they came here as requested by the Chairman of the Committee. The circular reads as follows:

SIR:—We understand that a circular has been issued, purporting to be signed by the Chairman of the County Committee, requesting you not to attend the meeting of the County Committee to be held at this place on the 20th inst.

Mr. Bauman is not yet aware of the issuing of such circular, nor has he put his name to it. On the contrary, it was issued by Wm. Lewis, the editor of the Globe, on his own responsibility, and without consultation with any one. The call which was issued in last week's Journal and American, was made after consultation with many of the best friends of the party, and the business which will be brought before that meeting is of vital importance to all of those who desire the success of our regularly nominated ticket. You are therefore earnestly requested to be present on Wednesday next.

No attention whatever should be paid to the circular sent you by Wm. Lewis, for the reason that he has no right to speak for the Committee or its Chairman.

We omit the eight names signed to the circular, for the reason that the gentlemen requested us not to make public use of them. Five of the gentlemen whose names are attached to the circular informed us on Monday that they never signed such a circular, and we have no doubt the remaining three would say the same thing,—thus placing the forgery at the door of the editors of the Journal & American.—They must be desperate indeed, when they will resort to base forgery for the purpose of defeating a call of the Chairman of the Committee. They have failed in their attempt to deceive the Committee, and they have failed in their attempt to disorganize the party. Poor devils, they are now despised by every honest Union party man.

☞ The Monitor calls upon Major Porter to organize his forces, draw up the line of battle, [illegible] whole column forward. They say he will find his troops anxious for the contest, but their leader must be in the front.

What is wrong? Does the Major reluctantly draw his sword to fight on the side he knows to be wrong, or is he such a leader that will take repeated promptings to spur him on to the charge? We very much believe he don't like the company that has shown him an extinguishing favor.

Plain and the Right Talk.

The Union party of Fayette county have put in nomination an entire Soldier ticket—Assembly, Sheriff, District Attorney, Treasurer, Commissioner, Auditors, County Surveyor and Director of the Poor. The Brownsville Clipper edited by Seth T. Hurd, Esq., one of the oldest Republican editors in the State, speaks as follows of the ticket, and we recommend our neighbors of the Journal & American to read his remarks carefully as they apply with equal force to the Union nominations in this county.

Mr. Hurd says:

"We do not advocate the election of the 'Soldiers' ticket,' this fall, merely because the candidates have been soldiers, and fought long and well for their country. We know the poor fellows have suffered everything but death, and encountered all the dangers and hardships of war; long and weary marches; storms, dangers, hunger and heartaches; all for their country, and that, too, while we—home civilians—were taking our ease, and enjoying all the sweets and comforts of domestic life. And yet it is not alone for that reason that we support them; though, certainly, that is no drawback; but we advocate the ticket, because, aside from their military services, they are all good, intelligent and capable men, and abundantly qualified to discharge the duties of the respective offices to which they have been nominated; and we don't care a tenpenny nail, whether they have been Republicans or Democrats. They have fought our battles,—saved our government, are honest, true, and capable, and if we had a thousand votes they should have them all."

THE COPPERHEAD CANDIDATE FOR AUDITOR GENERAL is not popular at home. Referring to this fact the editor of the Lehigh Register says that he traveled through a considerable portion of Bucks county, in which Col. Davis resides, and conversed with a number of returned soldiers who served under him, and found that with but very few exceptions they will not support him at the coming election. So much for Col. Davis' popularity as a military man. And there is nothing strange that the soldiers should thus refuse to vote for men who supported the doctrine that a soldier was unfit to exercise the privilege of the elective franchise.

☞ Under no circumstances, in the words of General Cox, would it be safe for us, "in the present unsettled condition of the country, to risk the transfer of the power of the Goverment into the hands of those who have been directly or indirectly disloyal" during the last four years of cruel war.

THE SOLDIER TICKET.—A correspondent from the northern section of the county informs us that the soldier ticket will suit all parties there, and of course will be triumphantly elected. This is the feeling of the true men all through the county.

BE ASSESSED.—Union voters, see that you are assessed before the 30th of this month; and not only assess yourselves but assess immediately all the soldiers and civilians in your neighborhood that need to be assessed.

Union Men, can you Vote with the Opposition.

In the spring of 1865 the question of extending the right of suffrage to those of our citizens whose enlistment in the army prevented their presence on election day at their various homes, came up for decision before the Legislature of our State. Where did we find the Democratic party standing then?—[illegible] measure came from the lips of an old, well drilled party man, whose life had been spent within the ranks of the Democrats; and the number of votes polled in opposition were neither few nor uninfluential. And when six months later the question was submitted to the people, it was an acknowledged issue between the two parties; and all the power of the opposition was brought to bear to secure the defeat of the measure Yet this party to day have nominated as its candidates two soldiers, and ask the support of the men whose disenfranchisement it so strenuously endeavored to secure! Can greater audacity and greater inconsistency be conceived in the political world? Such is one item from the record of the Democratic party.

Again, on the 6th of January, 1864, another link in the chain was added. Mr. Lowry offered the following resolution in our State Senate:—

Resolved, By the Senate, that the thanks of the loyal people of Pennsylvania are due and are hereby tendered to General U. S. Grant and the officers and soldiers serving under him, for the series of gallant services and glorious victories resulting in the liberation of the faithful Union people of East Tennessee from a military despotism more galling than ever was that of Great Britain.

On question, will the Senate proceed to a second reading of the resolutions? the yeas and nays were required by Mr. Donovan and Mr. Wallace, and were as follows, viz:—

YEAS—Messrs. Champneys, Connell, [illegible] Graham, Hoge, Householder, Johnson, Lowry, McCandless, Nichols, Ridgway, Turrell, Wilson, Worthington, and Penny, Speaker—16.

NAYS—Messrs. Beardsdale, Bucher, Clymer, Donovan, Glatz, Hopkins, Kinsley, Lamberton, Latta, McSherry, Montgomery, Reily, Smith, Stark, Stein, and Wallace—16.

So the question was determined in the negative. Here stands the name of every Democratic Senator recorded against a vote of thanks to General Grant, who brought the war to a successful close. Among the opposition we find the name of William A Wallace, the present Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, who is to-day professing such love for the soldiers.

At the time the Hon. Andrew Johnson was Military Governor of Tennessee he passed through Harrisburg on a visit to Washington. A resolution tendering him the freedom of the Hall of Representatives for the purpose of addressing the citizens of the capital was adopted by the Senate. But when it came before the House, where the Democrats had a majority, the entire party voted solid against the resolution, and by their votes defeated it. In the Senate William A. Wallace characterized President Johnson as a "usurper." This man and this party to day adopted a resolution commendatory of the usurper's course. Consistency, thou art a jewel!

We will not amplify on the record; we will leave it to the free, intelligent soldiers of the republic to decide whether or not they will be willing to cast their suffrages in favor of the men who have always opposed, abused, and cursed them while they were away from their homes and battling for their country. Are they willing to become dumb driven cattle, to be led by the men who have encouraged their enemies, and who laughed with scorn when they were exposed to death, and who hated the Union and the cause which they were fighting to maintain? What if that party has succeeded in securing two ex-soldiers to act as their candidates? Have not we men who have not only fought for the Union, but are still ready to battle for its principles now that the need for material energy is past? We are ready to submit to them the answer of the question. Will men who have insulted and slighted your gallant General Grant receive the votes of the soldiers whom he has so often and so gloriously led to victory.

Items about Home.

Digging for Copper.—An experienced foreign copper miner is now digging on the Poor House farm, adjoining Shirleysburg. He has dug several feet, and thinks he has good indications of approaching copper ore. So says the Herald.

Mystery.—The murder of the two women, in Cambria county, and that of Edinboro Smith of Johnstown, is still involved in mystery. No bills were found by the grand jury last week against any of those arrested in suspicion, and the cases, on motion of District Attorney Noon were continued to next term.

Agricultural Fair.—The Juniata Agricultural Fair will be held this fall, at the fair grounds, in Perrysville, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the 11th, 12, and 13th days of October.

Reed Murder.—John P. Reed, Jr., indicted for the alleged murder of Jacob Crouse, has been released on bail. Reed's counsel were ready and anxious to go on with the trial, but the prosecution refused to do so, and obtained a postponement. Mengel Reed, arrested for treason, on the oath of a brother of Crouse, and carried to Pittsburg, has been returned to his place.

Scratchings.

—Our Chief of Police is doing his duty, and the good citizens will stand at his back.

—Valuable personal property will be sold on Saturday, October 7th, '65, at the residence of John Porter, in Henderson township, this county.

—The camp meeting near Saulsburg ended on Thursday morning last. Over fifty people were converted. Another camp meeting is to be held in this county at Cassville, commencing on the 29th.

—A man named Bates who stole some clothing from Jacob's Hotel in this place was arrested last week at Harrisburg by Officer Charles Baugh, formerly of this place, and brought to this jail to await a trial.

—The man who attempted to run off last week from Mr. McNulty's without paying his boarding bill was somewhat frightened to find himself caught. He was obliged to pay up and was let off with a reprimand from the landlord and the jeers of the bystanders.

—The foundation work of a new house in West Huntingdon has commenced by Oliver Gipple. The other houses in that section are fast going up. D. M. Artley's is under roof, and is a neat structure; the Baptist parsonage is of brick, and is built up past the second story.

—Some of our towns-people are very partial to a certain board walk within the borough precincts. We think if they should go to some neighboring towns where board side walks alone abound, they would get enough of them. This is not saying anything against our board walk, however.

—Since the hunting season has commenced, the squirrels are having no peace, and no doubt the report of guns is continually ringing in their ears. We think the name Huntingdon, of our town, would not apply to the woods and bottoms around it. At present, hunting has only commenced.

—Our present Chief Burgess deserves credit for the energetic efforts he is making to have our town look inviting by paving the sidewalks of our much traveled streets. Other borough improvements have been in progress and undergone completion, for some time past, but we have neglected noticing them. Our borough authorities are not far behind some praiseworthy citizens, in the way of improvement, and increasing the accommodating facilities as well as the outward appearance of our town. Let the work go on.

—The arrangements for the fair are almost completed, as far as the building is concerned. Workmen have been engaged for more than a week past in erecting the stalls and sheds necessary, together with a race-course. The stalls are numerous, and we suppose the accommodations for articles to be exhibited under roof will be as extensive—two sheds are already up. It is now left, and expected, for the people to prepare to make it a good Fair. Only one week remains, as it commences next Wednesday.

—McEntyre's Indian Compound, sold at Lewis' Book Store, is surely no humbug, or else it would not be taken so freely and rapidly. When people find a good, reliable medicine they are determined to purchase it, no matter what their doctors say, and Dr. McEntyre's Medicines are just what they are represented, and cure the diseases mentioned, and no more. The medicines take like hot cakes, and those wanting them should call at Lewis' at once. Don't do without them, as they are a nice thing to have in a family.

The Fair.

We hope everybody will bring something for the fair. Only one week more and it will be at hand. Bring along your cows, bulls, sheep, hogs, horses, farming implements, big babies, turkeys, geese, pretty girls, mammoth pumpkins, potatoes, beets, young bachelors, big cabbage, onions, ducks, butter, chickens, fruits of all kinds, and everything you can think of. See premium list for varieties, and don't fail to bring something.

As we are chairman on the poultry committee, we give notice that we will expect to see a large display. We always count ourself in as a good judge of poultry, and we shall take great pleasure in giving attention to all presented for inspection, and if our coop should be filled to overflowing we will not complain.

A neighbor suggests that we offer the Globe for one year as a premium to the mother presenting the healthiest, most perfect and best looking baby from twelve to eighteen months old. We accept the suggestion and appoint Dr. John McCulloch, C. Long, D. McMurtrie, Robert King, Samuel Hemphill, W. W. Woods, Adol. Farer, E. C. Summers, D. Whittaker, and ourself, as Judges.

A Conductor in Luck.

A Deserted Infant Found in the Cars.—Our friend Harry McAtteer, Passenger Conductor on the Penna. railroad, is an extremely fortunate fellow. As he was coming eastward, last Tuesday night, with the Pittsburg and Erie mail train, he was making his ticket collections after leaving Huntingdon, and in his searches for hidden passengers he discovered in one of the saloons a "sweet little darling," about four days old, nicely wrapped in a shawl. The "package" had evidently been left there by its heartless mother. Harry, with the sense of duty that he will undoubtedly feel more sensibly ere long, took the child to his bosom and left it at Mifflin, where he had it properly cared for. The mother of the child got off the train at this place and took the direction of the Shaver's Creek camp meeting, to which place she was followed, but was either lost sight of in the crowd, or escaped further pursuit, as we have not heard of her capture.

Music, Musical Instruments and Sewing Machines.

B. M. Greene has opened his Music Store, one door west of Lewis' Book Store, near the Diamond, where he will keep constantly on hand Pianos, Melodeons, Cabinet Organs, Violins, Guitars, Fifes, Flutes, &c.; also Sheet Music, Music Books, and Guitar and Violin Strings. He is also agent for Grover & Baker's celebrated Sewing Machine.

Those desiring a reliable and durable instrument will find the genuine by calling on Mr. Greene, who spares no pains in endeavoring to please and accommodate his customers. Being an expert in the use of the instruments he is prepared to give and leave trial before purchase. Make up your minds to give Mr. Greene a call and have an instrument, during the Fair. Read advertisement.

Dinner to the Soldiers.

The last half day of the Juniata County Agricultural Exhibition will be occupied in giving a free dinner to the soldiers of the republic belonging to that county. To this end, the ladies of every borough and township in the county are formed into a committee to organize systematic action in getting up and superintending such a feast as they well know how to prepare. We throw this out as a suggestion, and is one which we think would be readily approved and heartily acted upon by the ladies of our own county. Let those in authority in the Fair to be held for this county make such a provision at once.

Caught at Last.

The inimatable Pete Jenkins, now traveling with Bailey's Circus, and who comes into the ring acting the part of the drunkard, was the other day arrested by the constable at Lowisburg, upon entering the ring. The constable believed him to be a real drunkard, and made the arrest to prevent a disturbance of the performance. This "sell" upon the constable, and "goak" upon Pete Jenkins must have increased the merriment when the facts were discovered, but, nevertheless, the circus company had considerable trouble to convince the officer that he had arrested one of their own men while in the performance of his duties as "Pete Jenkins."

Is it Not So?

If you have a wife and children is it not a pleasant thought that you will hand down to future generations a complete description and a perfect record, with likeness of yourself and them? This is the reflection that those persons enjoy who have secured a "Photograph Family Record."

Recommendation.

As a scientific, systematic and uniform writer, Prof. JOHN B. TUSSEY, of Porter township, this county, can not be excelled. So said by many good judges. 2t*

Peter K. Harnish, | William Davis,
William Christy, | James H. Davis.

☞ Those who want a good pair of boots for winter will call immediately upon Mr. George Shaeffer at his store on Hill street, near the Diamond. He has just received a new invoice of goods which he sells at reasonable prices.

The Legislature.

We have been informed that certain men in this Legislative District would not support the Union nominees for the Legislature. If Messrs. Baker and Brown, or either, should be defeated this fall, certain defeat of the Union nominees next fall would most surely follow. The Union candidates, if they receive the support only of the voters of the Union party, will have not less than five hundred majority in the district. They cannot be defeated by fair and honorable means. They are honest and capable men, and we feel very sure that every honest voter of the Union party in the District will give them his support.

Associate Judge and Auditor.

The Union County Committee met here on Monday in answer to the call of the Chairman, and renominated Anthony J. Beaver for Associate Judge. This second nomination of Mr. Beaver by a large vote, which was immediately made unanimous, should certainly satisfy all Union men that he is worthy their support.

The committee also, by a unanimous vote, placed upon the ticket Lieut. Milton H. Sangree of Walker township Mr. Sangree is well acquainted with the duties of Auditor, having lately served three years in that office. He is an excellent selection.

☞ We have a private word for those gentlemen professing to act with the Union party who are busy sowing the seeds of dissension. If you will not act with the party for its success because you have been deprived the privilege by the people of dictating the ticket you desired to see nominated, we advise you to step aside in an open and manly manner and permit the honest voters to lead in the contest against the enemies of the party. The people are always honest and should always lead—we want no better leaders.

☞ An open, bold and manly opponent does command respect—he can play the part of a gentleman in politics as well as in religious or other discussions—but a sneaking, cowardly opponent, professing friendship for the soldiers, exposes his true sheep thief character as soon as he gets in the neighborhood of an honest and gentlemanly candidate whose fair name he has attempted to injure, and whose election he expects to prevent by means only resorted to by the unprincipled, and dirty politician.

☞ WERZ, the Andersonville butcher of Union prisoners, now on trial in Washington, has asked for the consoling company of two priests. His request has been granted by the War Department, and of course everybody knows what the villain meant when he solicted such consolation. His guilty soul begins to sicken at the approach of his doom, and as he cannot escape the punishment of men, he intends to elude, if possible, the grip of the devil.

☞ Treason crushed to earth should not be allowed to rise again. Voters, look to it that on election day you do not assist in helping it to rise by voting the wrong ticket. The organization that lately denounced the soldiers as hirelings, murderers, etc., should be closely watched.

☞ Pianos and Melodeons for sale by E. M. Bruce, No. 18 North Seventh street, Philadelphia, whose advertisement appears in this issue. Those desiring articles in his line will do well to give him a call.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED.—The so called Democratic party are exceedingly loud now-a-days in their praises of the returned soldiers, and are even forcing themselves to put in practice what they reluctantly preach, by putting them on their ticket to make their platform stronger. We are sure they pursue such a course more from policy than choice. The following remarks by Major General Collis at an encouraging Union ratification meeting in Philadelphia, on Saturday, the 16th inst., will reveal the true position of the opposition party, as it is related by a soldier in military parlance:

"Major General Collis concluded the speaking. He made an appeal to the soldiers to enroll their names once more in the great cause of the country, and be mustered into service to fight sympathizers with treason, as faithfully with their ballots as they fought traitors with muskets. It seemed strange to him that it should be deemed necessary to say anything to soldiers on the issues of the day, but he was compelled to caution them. He said:

'You must not be deceived by the head and front of the so called Democratic ticket being dressed in the national uniforms; you must not be deceived by the enemy's column of candidates headed by a couple of your comrades. Didn't Moseby play this very same game when he stole your boots? Didn't he always head his column with a few blue coats? Didn't this wolf in sheep's clothing always approach you as a friend, and then strip you of everything worth carrying away? So it is with this modern Moseby party, who on the 10th of next month will approach you carrying the Stars and Stripes, and led by a couple of blue coats. When the head of their column appears, I want you to look well down its ranks, and I think you will find following in the rear as sorry, and seedy, and hungry a set of graybacks as you ever set eyes upon between Petersburg and Appomattox Court House; and if you do not hurl them back upon their reserves in Virginia and South Carolina, Moseby like, they will rob you, soldiers, of the hard earned fruits of your four years toil.'"

Bargains.

—New Goods. We see that D. P. Gwin has just opened a new stock of goods. Give him a call.

ASSOCIATE JUDGE.

To My Fellow Soldiers, and Fellow Citizens of Huntingdon County.

I announce myself to you as an Independent Union Candidate for the office of Associate Judge. And in doing so, you have the right to know who I am, and why I ask your votes.

I was born and reared in Penn township, and am now 32 years of age. Raised a farmer, I followed that pursuit until the commencement of the rebellion, when on the 16th of September, 1861, I enlisted as a private in the company of Capt. J. H. Wintrode in the 53d Regt. P. V., commanded by Col. Brooke. I was engaged in the seven days battles on the Peninsula, at Antietam, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, and the intermediate fights, and on the 14th of October, 1863, a few miles from Bristow Station, Va., I had my right arm nearly shot off, compelling me to have it amputated close to the shoulder, a few hours afterwards. I was then taken to the hospital in Alexandria, where I lay until March 1864, when I was transferred to the Invalid Corps, in which I remained until the 21st of August, 1865, when I was discharged. Having been made Orderly Sergeant, and it being a part of my duty to keep the rolls of the company, I did my writing with my left hand. This is a brief account of my services during the war, and I take pride in referring to my Company and Regimental Officers for my record as a soldier; and as for character as a citizen, I refer to my neighbors at home, irrespective of party.

I am not and never was a politician. I love my country, and am willing to risk my life again in her defence. I claim no honor for what I have done—it was only my duty; but as I am poor, and, having lost my right arm in the service, and unable to earn a livelihood by honest toil, I appeal to the people, soldiers and citizens, to reward those who have been crippled for life in this great struggle to preserve the Government. The soldiers who fought by my side under our glorious flag, and are ready to do so again will not turn from the appeal of their former comrade in arms. If there is anything on earth that sanctifies friendship and proves our common brotherhood, it is the sufferings, the struggle, and the wounds of war. As the great fight is now over, the rebellion suppressed, and peace restored, we should not forget the brave men who won us the victory.

If elected I promise to discharge the duties of the trust with honesty and fidelity; and whether elected or defeated, I shall be none the less true to my country, and her triumphant flag. ANTHONY J. BEAVER.

ASSEMBLY.—

To the Voters of the Representative District Composed of the Counties of Huntingdon, Mifflin and Juniata.

At the earnest solicitations of many of my fellow citizens, I have been induced to offer myself as an independent candidate for the Legislature in this District, composed of the counties of Huntingdon, Mifflin and Juniata. If four years voluntary service in our army for the preservation of our glorious Union, constitute any claims to your suffrage, I ask it of you. For my acts as an officer and soldier, I refer you to the 9th Penna Cavalry during the war. J. M. PORTER.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

TO THE LADIES.—Do you really intend to cease wearing the beautiful styles now so prevalent, or dress less elegantly, because the rebel Jeff. Davis, was captured in Fashionable Female attire? One moment's calm reflection will surely serve to change your rash resolve. The angels had too much good sense to lay aside their pure chaste robes of white, because they had for a time served to hide the deformities of that Prince of Rebels, the Devil. Can you err in following the example of Angels? Then having made up your minds that you will continue to dress tastefully regardless of rebel acts, do not forget to call at the store of the subscribers, who will be happy at all times to furnish you with such articles of dress as you may desire. Urge your fathers, husbands, brothers, neighbors and children to visit the same store. They can here be suited in good articles of Boots, Shoes, Clothing Material, Hats, Caps, Queensware and a general assortment of Groceries, on as reasonable terms as at any House in town. Store on South east corner of the Diamond, Huntingdon, Pa.

DR. STRICKLAND.—The valuable remedies offered by this regularly educated physician, who came here from Tennessee, highly recommended, will be found advertised in our columns. His office is No. 6 East Fourth street, Cincinnati, O.

We would advise any one suffering from a distressing cough or any affliction of the throat or lungs, to try Dr. Strickland's Melefluous Cough Balsam; it is for sale at the drug stores.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865-6.

The great invention of the age in

HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent Duplex or double, ELLIPTIC SPRING SKIRT.

This invention consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic pure refined steel springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable spring ever used. They seldom be nd or break, like the single springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any single spring skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded assemblies, operas carriages, railroad cars, church pews, arm chairs, for promenade and house dress, as the skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small space as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress.

A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the duplex elliptic steel spring skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For children, misses and young ladies they are superior to all others.

The hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering, which is used on all single steel hoop skirts. The three bottom rods on every skirt are also double steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., which they are constantly subject when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant corded tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable, and economical skirt ever made.

Woods' Bradley & Cary, proprietors of the invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers, and 79 and 81 Reade streets, New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this city, and throughout the United States, Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America, and the West Indies.

PROF. J. H. M'ENTYRE'S GREAT REMEDY,

THE

INDIAN COMPOUND

Internal and External Medicine,

WILL CURE:

☞ Diarrhœa, Bloody Flux in one day,
☞ Headache and Earache in three minutes.
☞ Toothache in one minute.
☞ Neuralgia in five minutes,
☞ Sprains in twenty minutes,
☞ Sore Throat in ten minutes,
☞ Cholic and Cramp in five minutes,
☞ Rheumatism in one day,
☞ Pain in the Back or Side in ten minutes,
☞ Bad Coughs or Colds in one day,
☞ Fever and Ague in one day.
☞ Cures Deafness, Asthma, Piles,
☞ Bronchitis Affections, Dyspepsia,
☞ Inflammation of the Kidneys, Erysipelas,
☞ Liver Complaint and Palpitation of the Heart.

Keep it in your Families—Sickness comes when least expected.

I propose to check, and effectually dissipate more ache and pain, and to accomplish more perfect equilibrium of all the circulating fluids in the human system, than can be effected by any other, or all other methods of medical aid in the same space of time.

THIS POPULAR REMEDY is fast coming into use, for the fact that I cure, free of charge, all those complaints whenever there is an opportunity to do so. As soon as it is applied it almost miraculously kills the pain. I do not ask you to buy before you are certain of its efficiency. If you have an ache or pain, it is warranted to do all it purports on the label; otherwise the money will be refunded.

I do not propose to cure every disease—only a class named by my directions. My liniment operates on chemical and electric principles, and is, therefore, appliable, to the cure or natural restorative of all organic derangement arising from an improper circulation of the nerve vital fluids.

Prof. J. H. McEntyre's INDIAN COMPOUND acts directly on the absorbents, reducing glandular and other swellings in incredible short time, without any possible danger from its use under any possible circumstances.

This is an internal and external medicine—composed of roots, herbs and barks, such as our forefathers used.—There is a bountiful supply on earth to cure all complaints if we only know what they were.

This has been a great study with the Medical Faculty for many years, to find out the kinds best adapted to the above complaints—how to put them together, and what proportions to use.

Who offer their stock of well grown and thrifty TREES, VINES, PLANTS, &c., at their old prices. The expense of grafting and planting this stock having been incurred before the outbreak of the rebellion when the price of labor was low, they can afford to sell these Trees at 50 per cent. less than they can sell the same kind of trees next year. While other Nurserymen have raised their prices about 66 per cent., these still sell at the old rates this year; that is to say—Apple Trees, $15, $18 and $20 per hundred, according to size, &c. Standard Pear 50 to 75 cents each. Dwarf Pear, 50 to 75 cents each, and $30 to $45 per hundred. Plum and Apricot, at 40 to 50 cents each. Also, Peach, Cherry, Quince and other trees; Grape Vines, Lawton Blackberry, Raspberry, and Strawberry plants, Dahlia roots, and Shade and Ornamental Trees—all at the old rates.

Money invested in fruit trees is sure to yield a good return. Now is your time to order trees.
